

Michalis Giannaki

NEPHROLOGIST, MD

+357 99313807 | giannaki.michalis@gmail.com

Profile

Nephrologist trained in hospitals in Cyprus and Greece. Actively involved in the scientific community through conferences and presentations of clinical work. Known for a team-oriented spirit and a commitment to providing quality patient care.

Professional Experience

Consultant Nephrologist

Private Dialysis Unit "Nefrontida"

2026–Present

Scientific Collaborator

European University Cyprus

2026–Present

Nephrology Resident, Nicosia General Hospital & Limassol General Hospital, Cyprus

2021 — 2025

Rural Doctor, Eratini, Greece

2020 — 2021

Internal Medicine Resident, Athens, Greece

2018 — 2020

Education

Medical Degree (MD), National and Kapodistrian University of Athens

2011 — 2017

Grade: Very Good

Scientific Activity

Selected Conferences & Educational Seminars in Cyprus and Abroad

- 4th Pancyprian Congress of Nephrology, 4/2026
- 3rd Pancyprian Congress of Nephrology, 5/2025
- Scientific Meeting of the Cyprus Transplantation Council, 5/2025
- 17th Nephrology Educational Seminar, Hellenic Society of Nephrology, 11/2024
- Advanced Life Support Certification – Instructor Potential, European Resuscitation Council, 10/2024
- International Workshop on Alport Syndrome, 3/2024

- 59th ERA Congress, 5/2022
- 34th European Renal Cell Study Group (ERCSG) Meeting, 4/2022
- 1st Congress of Extrarenal Clearance, 9/2021

Oral Presentations

- Pancyprrian Congress of Nephrology, 5/2025: "Severe manifestation of primary Sjögren's syndrome with hypokalemic limb paralysis, acute kidney injury, proximal renal tubular acidosis, and monoclonal gammopathy of the urine. Clinical case presentation."
- Nicosia General Hospital, 11/2023: "Infections associated with central venous hemodialysis catheters"

Poster Presentations

- 26th Panhellenic Congress of Nephrology, 5/2025: "Severe manifestation of primary Sjögren's syndrome with hypokalemic limb paralysis, acute kidney injury, proximal renal tubular acidosis, and monoclonal gammopathy of the urine. Clinical case presentation."
- 24th Panhellenic Congress of Nephrology, 5/2023: "Lupus nephritis in a patient with primary Sjögren's syndrome and low serum complement levels. Clinical case presentation."

Military Service

Cyprus National Guard

2009 — 2011

Rank: Reserve Second Lieutenant

Member of Scientific Societies

- European Renal Association (ERA)
- Cyprus Society of Nephrology
- Pancyprrian Medical Association

Languages

- Greek — Excellent (Native)
- English — Very Good (Anglia Examinations – Proficiency)